ILS POLICY – POL 10

05/01/2020

ILS AWARDS AND RECOGNITION POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

People are the ILS's most valuable resource. As such it is essential that the ILS acknowledge the range of contributions that are made by Individual Members and/or Member Federations/Organisations that by their actions have contributed to the furtherance of lifesaving and the goals of the ILS.

Such contribution may be achieved through lifesaving rescues, technical and administrative efforts, financial support, etc. The primary focus is to recognise the voluntary contribution that an individual has made be it through a long history of involvement or alternatively for a specific task or project that has been undertaken.

2. CHANCELLERY

The ILS has set up a Chancellery which is delegated by the Board of Directors with the responsibility and authority to review and accept proposals for honours and awards for individuals, teams and organisations and submit those for approval or ratification to the Board of Directors.

The Council of Meritorious Order of the ILS (the Chancellery) is composed of six members:

- The Grand Master is the ILS President.
- The Chancellor and Secretary is the ILS Secretary General.
- The remaining four Chancellery Members are the four ILS Vice-Presidents.

The awarded people's names and countries are published on the ILS web site.

3. ORDER OF LIFESAVING

3.1. Introduction

The Order of Lifesaving is a group of special awards conferred by the ILS upon deserving persons. The ILS Order of Lifesaving comprises two (2) grades:

1. Knight
2. Grand Knight

3.2. Attribution Procedure

1. The initial request is made confidentially by one of the authorities defined in the point below and addressed to the ILS Secretary General. Such nomination shall contain a summary of the reasons for the nominee's suitability for the award.
2. The ILS Secretary General reviews the application for completeness and transmits it to the Chancellery. If the nomination is not coming from an ILS Member Federation/Organisation, the ILS Secretary General will solicit the opinion of the Member Federation/Organisation.
3. The Chancellery meets in camera. If the Chancellery declines to issue an award, no further action is taken and the person submitting the nomination is advised. If the Chancellery recommends approval of the award, it is then brought before the Board of Directors.
4. The Board of Directors approves or disapproves the recommendation of the Chancellery.
5. Appropriate notifications and awards are given.

3.3. Ceremony

The Medal, the Certificate and the Citation Diploma of the Order of Lifesaving are presented to the recipient by the ILS President, Grand Master of the Order, or by his/her designated representative.

At the presentation ceremony, the following proclamation is made:

"Mr/Mrs/Miss (name), in the name of the International Life Saving Federation in recognition of your devotion to the cause of lifesaving, and to the ideals of the ILS, I make you (award) in the Order of Lifesaving".

3.4. Nominations

The persons who can nominate a candidate:

- The Members of the ILS Board of Directors.
- The Presidents of an ILS Member Federation/Organisation in good standing.

3.5. Attribution

The attribution is done on the occasion of:

13. INTERNATIONAL LIFESAVING HALL OF FAME

13.1. Background

The Hall of Fame is to be registered at and located in the ILS Headquarters. An area is set up in the Headquarters that is dedicated to preserving lifesaving's special place in history and to honour international lifesaving's rich and proud heritage.

The ILS Hall of Fame will permanently display, commemorate and recognise members and teams who have achieved outstanding accomplishments and exceptional contributions to the development of International Lifesaving. These achievements are not restricted in relation to the area of their contribution but must have been inspirational in application to international lifesaving activities.

The ILS Hall of Fame may be displayed at other locations such as the International Swimming Hall of Fame and ILS Full Member Federations/Organisations but only with the prior formal approval of the ILS Board and subject to a formal agreement with the ILS.

The inaugural inductions into the ILS Hall of Fame was conducted at the ILS Centennial Celebration in 2010. Subsequent inductions will occur at World Championships and/or General Assemblies and/or ILS Conferences. Individuals and Members of Teams will each be presented with an ILS medal appropriately endorsed with their award.

13.2. Nomination procedure and administration

Nominations for the Hall of Fame may only be made by a Full Member Federation/Organisation in good standing, the ILS President, a Member of the ILS Board of Directors or an ILS Commission Chair.

The nominations are to be submitted on an appropriate form. All nominations are to be forwarded to the ILS from the nominator with the endorsement of the Member Federation/Organisation. Nominations not endorsed by the Full Member Federation/Organisation from the country of the nominated person will not be considered.

Nominations must be accompanied by a photo of sufficient quality for scanning and a conclusive history covering the service and outstanding or pioneering achievements and exceptional contributions to ILS which address the criteria. The accompanying history is restricted to two pages for each nomination.

13.3. Assessment, Approval and Notification Procedure

Assessment will be made by the ILS Chancellery. The ILS Secretary General will receive and submit the nominations together with the recommendations from the nominator to the Chancellery for subsequent recommendation to the ILS Board. The Chancellery will make recommendation to the ILS Board of Directors for each nomination received in the appropriate category of the award and on the appropriate form. Any member of the Chancellery being considered for this award is to be eliminated from the assessment process.

Assessment by the Chancellery will be made against the criteria detailed below. The decision of the ILS Board will be final.

Nominations not recommended by the Chancellery will not be submitted to the ILS Board and will be treated as confidential. Unsuccessful nominations may be re-submitted for consideration after a period of two (2) years or at the time nominations are due prior to the succeeding General Assembly, whichever is the sooner.

Some nominations may be recommended but held over for reconsideration for induction at a later date. This will be advised to the nominator and Member Federation/ Organisation.

All successful nominees will be advised in writing of their induction by the Secretary General on behalf of the ILS President. The ILS Secretary General will also advise the recipient of the award and induction arrangements into the Hall of Fame.

All nominations are to be treated as confidential and unsuccessful nominations will be advised only to the nominator/s for the award.

13.4. Application Conditions

Initial nominations to include notable persons who have contributed to International Lifesaving through WLS and FIS prior to the formation of the ILS and with the formation of the ILS in 1994.

Other nominations will cover the period since the inception of the ILS in 1994.

All endorsed nominations for the initial induction must be forwarded to ILS by no later than 15 September 2009. Nominations must be listed by category. Closing dates for nominations after 2009 will be advised by the ILS Secretary General.

13.5. Number of nominees

Nominations for the ILS Hall of Fame will only be considered every two years and there will be a general limit of eight (8) nominees inducted into the Hall of Fame every two (2) years. The International Life Saving Federation recognises the prestigious nature of this award and will consider applications appropriately. In special circumstances the ILS Board may approve the induction of more than eight (8) nominees in any two-year cycle by unanimous approval of the Board on the recommendation of the Chancellery.

13.6. ILS awareness

Special efforts will be made in ILS newsletters, publications and the ILS web site to draw the attention of Member Federations/Organisations as a whole to the award.

13.7. Timing and presentation

Induction into the ILS Hall of Fame will take place bi-annually at World Championships and /or World Congress of Member Federations/Organisation, at a time and location to be determined by the ILS President.

13.8. Criteria and Hall of Fame categories

Those recommending persons or teams for this award shall do so in accordance with the award criteria detailed below. All nominations must be to a specific category and must be endorsed by the Member Federation/Organisation to which the individual or team is affiliated. Nominations not endorsed by the Full Member Federation/Organisation from the country of the nominated person will not be considered.

“International” contribution is that which is considered to be significant and additional to any contribution made to the Members or Teams own Member Federation/Organisation and has helped the objectives of the ILS.

The categories are:

- a. International Lifesaving.
- b. International Lifesaving – Sport.

International Lifesaving

The Hall of Fame recognises those individuals and teams who have been involved in all or any significant facets of International lifesaving operations. Examples are active patrolling, lifeguarding, education, training and examination, rescue services, medical, development, research and the general support activities involved in lifesaving search and rescue, emergency response and surveillance, presidents, administrators, managers, directors, commission chairs and members, convenors, committee chairs and members, secretaries and treasurers, etc. This category also recognises those involved with the development of lifesaving services and water safety at an international level. It is intended that individuals or teams must have contributed beyond their ILS competitive achievements to be considered for this award.

International Lifesaving Sport

The Hall of Fame recognises those individuals and teams who have been involved in all or any significant facets of International lifesaving sports. Examples are active participation, refereeing and/or any general support activities involved in lifesaving sport. Eligible persons are presidents, administrators, managers, directors, commission chairs and members, convenors, committee chairs and members, secretaries and treasurers, athletes, team managers, team officials, (members, trainers, coaches, etc.), technical officials, etc. This category also recognises those involved with the development of lifesaving sport at an international level. It is intended that individuals or teams must have contributed beyond their ILS competitive achievements to be considered for this award.

13.9. Criteria

The following criteria are to be addressed in each nomination:

- 13.9.1. Nominations may only be for one category, however, evidence supporting the nomination covering activities relevant to the other categories should be provided and will be taken into consideration. It is important that the complete career of the nominee is put forward to permit a total assessment.
- 13.9.2. Nominees are to be in good standing with the ILS and the respective Member Federation/Organisation. Controversy should be avoided. For example, persons charged with using performance-enhancing drugs, having been disciplined for contravention of the code of ethics of the ILS or their Member Federation/Organisation, or who have been found guilty of criminal offences (whether connected with the ILS or not) should not be nominated. Nominees under investigation will not be considered until all or any charges against them are cleared.
- 13.9.3. Nominations should draw names from a broad range of members or teams who have been, or are currently;
 - Past and present ILS office holders and administrators.
 - Past and present office holders of Member Federations/Organisations.
 - Active/patrolling members.
 - Rescue Services members / groups.
 - Lifesaving support groups.
 - Examiners/Trainers.
 - Competitors.
 - Competition Officials.
 - Coaches.
 - Advisors (e.g. medical, research, etc.).
 - Outstanding individuals who have contributed significantly to the ILS.

13.9.4. Nominations must clearly demonstrate that individuals or teams have:

- Displayed exceptional and sustained service to international lifesaving in the specific category.
- Achieved outstanding individual or team accomplishments which set the individual or team apart from other lifesavers, teams or administrators at an international level.
- Displayed sustained excellence over a long period of time at an international level to the category for which they are nominated.

Any enquiries about the ILS Hall of Fame should be directed to the ILS Secretary General.
