CONSTITUTION

(Articles of Association - Statutes)

Article 1. Name and Formation

- 1.1. The association bears the name "International Life Saving Federation", abbreviated "ILS". The ILS is an international non-profit association.
- 1.2. The ILS was established on 24 February 1993 in Leuven (Belgium) and constituted on 3 September 1994 in Cardiff (United Kingdom) by an integration of the Fédération Internationale de Sauvetage Aquatique (FIS) founded in 1910 and the World Life Saving (WLS) founded in 1956.
- 1.3. The ILS was incorporated by Royal Decree signed by H.M. the King of Belgium on 3 April 1997 as an international non-profit association in accordance with, and is currently governed by, the provisions of Section III of the Act of 27 June 1921 on international non-profit associations established in Belgium, as amended from time to time.
- 1.4. The ILS is established for an indefinite duration.

Article 2. Registered Office - Seat

The registered office is located in the juridical district of Leuven, Gemeenteplein 26 - 3010 Leuven, Belgium. The location of the registered office may be changed within Belgium from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Article 3. Objectives

The ILS leads, collaborates and partners with national and international organisations to prevent drowning, to promote the provision of lifesaving services and to oversee lifesaving sport throughout the world with the following specific objectives:

- 3.1. Lead the global effort to develop and recommend best practice in drowning prevention, aquatic lifesaving, resuscitation and emergency care.
- 3.2. Teach lifesaving and establish educational exchanges of aquatic lifesaving techniques and operations.
- 3.3. Exchange medical and scientific knowledge in the field of aquatic lifesaving and drowning prevention.
- 3.4. Encourage the conduct of training and development of standards worldwide to advance drowning prevention, lifesaving and lifesaving sport.
- 3.5. Extend the teachings and activities of the ILS to all places throughout the world and communicate and act in co-operation with other international humanitarian bodies.
- 3.6. Promote uniformity concerning lifesaving equipment, public information, symbols and laws for control and regulation within the aquatic environment.
- 3.7. Promote lifesaving sport and regularly organise international aquatic lifesaving competitions in order to stimulate the interest of competitors to improve their skills and preparedness to save people who are in danger in the aquatic environment.

- 3.8. Encourage and oversee the convening of international conferences for the purpose of exchanging information, creating links of friendship, and encouraging collaboration among Members and other international bodies which pursue the same humanitarian goals.
- 3.9. To respond to and assist in co-ordinating the urgent response to flooding, landslide, earthquake and all similar disasters and events where lifesaving, rescue, resuscitation, first aid and similar skills are likely to be required.
- 3.10. Encourage measures to prevent the pollution of the aquatic environment.
- 3.11. Take such other actions as the ILS considers will advance these Objectives.

The ILS is allowed to undertake all actions, engage in all activities and execute all legal instruments, which are useful, necessary or which directly or indirectly contribute to the achievement of the above-mentioned objectives.

Article 4. Members

The ILS is composed of two categories of Members, namely:

- 4.1. Voting Members: Full Members.
- 4.2. Non-Voting Members: Associate, Corresponding and other categories of Members described in the Bye-Laws.
