

ATHLETES COMMISSION

The ILS Athletes Commission is composed of at least six elected persons from which 50% are male and 50% are female. It comprises an elected Chair, an elected Secretary and a minimum of four elected Members. The Commission represents at least three of the four ILS Regions. The Commission Members are active and/or recently retired athletes (maximum 5 years retired at the start of their four-year mandate).

The ILS Athletes Commission is tasked to empower the athlete's representation in the ILS decision-making processes, to support the athlete development in their sporting and non-sporting careers and to represent the athlete's views in the decisions across the ILS.

The ILS Athletes Commission reports to the ILS Board of Directors.
